

CV – Henrik Andersen

Year of birth

1964

Education

M.Sc. in Civil and Structural Engineering from the Technical University of Denmark, 1989

- > Leading Professional Service Firms, Executive Course at Harvard University, 2016
- > Participation in various leadership development programs and project management programs in COWI
- > B. Comm. (HD) in International Management and Economics, Copenhagen Business School, 1993

Professional experience

2015-present Senior Vice President, Bridges International, BTM

Responsible for business unit Bridges International with bridge departments in Denmark, UK, Korea, India and Qatar. Member of the management group for Business line BTM.

As Senior Vice President responsible for and in charge of strategy, marketing and operation of COWI's international bridge business. Technical excellence is the cornerstone to maintaining COWI as a top-three international bridge designer.

2014 Senior Market Director and Vice President, Major Bridges

Responsible for international marketing of COWI Bridges in addition to the role as Vice President for the Major Bridge department.

2007-2013 Head of Department/Vice President, Major Bridges, BTM

Responsible for a department with approximately 100 employees designing large bridges and providing specialist services world-wide. Worked with staff development, business development and financial management. Sparring partner for project directors of large projects such as the Izmit Bay Bridge in Turkey.

2004-2007 Chief Project Manager, Major Bridges

Manager of overseas bridge projects such as the Sutong Bridge in China. Worked with business development as part of the department management.

2002-2003 Senior Project Manager, Major Bridges

Manager of overseas bridge projects including Sheikh Zayed Bridge in Abu Dhabi.

1999-2001 Associate and member of the Executive Management, Buckland & Taylor Ltd. Vancouver, Canada

Transferred to Buckland & Taylor following its acquisition by COWI. Was part of the management of the company together with the 3 vendors. Responsible for liaison with COWI in Denmark.

1997-1999 Head of Section, Major Bridges

Responsible for a group of 10 staff combined with a role as deputy project manager of a bridge project in Argentina.

1994-1997 Senior Engineer, Major Bridges

Discipline lead engineer on among others the Øresund Bridge project.

1989-1994 Design Engineer, Special Structures

Design engineer on large-scale bridge projects such as Great Belt Bridge.

1989 Design Engineer, Bridges Division, Ove Arup & Partners, Hong Kong

Analysis and design of bridges.

Other assignments within COWI

Chairman of the Board of Directors of COWI Korea and member of the boards of COWI UK and COWI Gulf, and advisory board member in COWI Qatar.

Relevant competencies

- > Financial and risk management
- > Business development and project management
- > Strategy development and implementation
- > In-depth knowledge of the international transportation sector and work with private customers
- > Experience from working in a COWI subsidiary and working across business units and countries in the COWI Group
- > Cross-cultural understanding from working with customers globally.

Relevant competencies according to the competency profile for the Board of Directors of COWI Holding A/S

- > Senior management experience from Nordic consultancy companies
- > Customer relation management including sales, marketing and branding
- > People management in knowledge-based companies
- > Operational excellence in service companies
- > Financial Management
- > Business development.